

ceased to be an appearance of hospitals for small pneumonia.

I enclose a piece of today's 'Lancet' which contains an article on the subject. The ground it takes is, I think, a judicious one. But the general opinions which it expresses are felt by a very large majority of those of my profession with whom I commonly act and agree.

I am, dear Madam, very truly yours
